

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. It is an example of how a few powerful people with access to lots of money and with the wherewithall to broadcast their point of view can use the public airwaves for their own personal (or corporate) political aims. It is biased and unfair, and it degrades the democratic political process of this country. Please act to stop Sinclair from using their position to attempt to manipulate this election.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
